Angry reception for Bush

From correspondents in Brussels
21feb05

ABOUT 1000 people have demonstrated against the Bush administration in central Brussels ahead of the US president's arrival.

Protesters brandished signs reading "Bush is not welcome" just a few hours before George W. Bush was to touch down at the start of a European tour.

Huddled on the steps of the Brussels stock exchange, the activists held up an Iraqi flag, another bearing the Cuban colours, and waved a rainbow-coloured banner bearing the world "Pace" (peace).

Another banner declared: "President Bush, the world is calling you to account."

Similar demonstrations are expected throughout Mr Bush's stay in Brussels.

He is due to attend summit meetings with the leaders of the European Union and NATO, amid an unprecedented security lockdown.
